Assignment Title: Developing Terms of Reference (ToRs) for a National Trainers and developing a Training Manual

Reference No: UG-NBD-2100043-CS-INDV

The Nile Basin Discourse (NBD) has received a third cycle Additional funding (AF) from the Cooperation in International Waters in Africa (CIWA), a Trust Fund administered by the World Bank (WB) under the project titled: Engaging Civil Society for Social & Climate Resilience in the Nile Basin and intends to apply part of the proceeds of this grant to procure a consultant to develop comprehensive Terms of Reference (ToRs) and Training Manual for National Experts who will train NBD’s members and stakeholders at National levels.

This assignment has the objective of developing comprehensive Terms of References (ToRs) for National Trainers, and also develop a training manual to be used by the National Trainers to build capacities of grassroots communities in the 10 Nile riparian states, the network members and other stakeholders as beneficiaries. the consultant will develop ToRs and the training manual on selected and agreed upon topics or a combination of them which include but not limited to: “Water and environmental sustainability, climate security, green jobs and resilience, flood and drought risk mitigation, women in water development, youth in water development and / or any other topic on high-ranked emerging issues based on stipulations in the detailed ToRs to be posted on the NBD website: www.nilebasindiscourse.org.

The consultant shall prepare and submit a work plan based on desk review and input from NBD. He/she will prepare and submit draft ToRs and the draft Training Manual (that entails agreed upon indicative training modules). He/she shall submit the final ToRs and training manual (that entails agreed upon indicative training modules) after incorporating comments from NBD. The assignment shall be performed within fifteen (15) working days scattered over an agreed period of time.

The attention of interested Consultants is drawn to Section III, paragraphs, 3.14, 3.16, and 3.17 of the World Bank's "Procurement Regulations for IPF Borrowers" July 2016("Procurement Regulations"), setting forth the World Bank's policy on conflict of interest.

The minimum qualifications and experiences required of the Individual Consultant (IC) are: an Advanced University Degree (M.A. level) in Water Resources Management, Social Economic Studies, Climate change and Development, Gender studies, Climate Change and climate security, or related fields. Minimum five (5) years of work experiences in the aforesaid areas, within the Nile Basin, preferably in the civil society sectors. A hands-on and demonstrated experience in ToRs and training manual development is a requirement. Advanced communications, recruitment and reporting skills, fluency in both written and spoken English is a requirement; and fluency in Arabic and French will be an added advantage.

The Nile Basin Discourse Secretariat now invites eligible individual consultants to indicate their interest in providing the services; interested and eligible consultants should provide (in either soft or hard copy versions) (i) Cover Letter with clear expression of interest and required skills for the job, and (ii) an updated signed CV to be evaluated as an indication of their qualification to perform the services.

Selection will be in accordance with the procedures set out in the World Bank's guidelines: Selection and Employment of Consultants by World Bank Borrowers (published by the Bank).

Interested and eligible Individual Consultants may obtain further information at the address below during week days Monday to Friday from 09.00 hrs to 17.00hrs.

A soft copy of a signed CV + Expressions of Interest-Cover Letter shall be submitted by email to the Regional Program Administrator of NBD at: info@nilebasindiscourse.org not later than 15th February 2021 at 17.00 hrs Uganda time.
